

PALMETTO STATE LITERACY ASSOCIATION

The Palmetto State Literacy Association (PSLA) is pleased to announce a series of professional learning opportunities beginning on January 23, 2021. Sessions will be held on selected Saturdays between January and May from 10:00 -11:00 am EST and are being offered free of charge. The state organization simply requests that you join your local PSLA council if you are not currently a member. Membership to your local council, which runs from July 1 through June 30, is $15 and includes membership to PSLA. A link to the PSLA membership portal can be found here - <https://palmettostateliteracy.org/membership/>

Our first Saturday session will feature Maria Walther, author of The Ramped Up Read Aloud and The Literacy Workshop. Check out Maria's webpage here - mariawalther.com.

Use this link to register for the January 23, 2021 session <https://forms.gle/Nt7ni7NGw73UxexK7>. A link to the Zoom session will be forwarded to you upon receipt of your registration.

Please feel free to share with your local councils and other literacy circles.
