

PALMETTO
STATE
LITERACY
ASSOCIATION

PSLA Distinguished Literacy Teacher Award

Each PSLA local council may nominate two individuals for the Distinguished Literacy Teacher Award. One teacher for the Elementary and one from the Secondary division may be selected to represent The Distinguished Literacy Teacher Award Program for each local council.

- Any reading council member may be selected whether he/she is a math, social studies, science, language arts, physical education, special education, foreign language teacher, or media specialist.
- The person selected should be a teacher who strives to motivate students to read and to inspire a love and appreciation of reading.
- Teachers must be a current member of their local council and the Palmetto State Literacy Association prior to the submission of the application.
- Teachers apply innovative literacy techniques in a classroom setting.

Submission:

- Deadline: December 1
- The name of the winners(As it should appear on our website)
- School
- School District
- Local Council
- JPEG formatted picture
- Please contact the Chairperson of the Distinguished Literacy Teacher Award for any questions.