

The Palmetto State Literacy Association (PSLA) is pleased to announce a series of professional learning opportunities beginning September 22, 2021. The sessions will be held after school between September and June from 4:00 - 5:00 pm EST. The sessions will be free to all members. If you are not a member, you may join your local council, which runs from July 1st through June 30th. Membership is $15 and includes membership to PSLA. A link to the PSLA membership portal can be found here -

<https://palmettostateliteracy.org/membership/>

Our first session will feature Whitney LaRocca, coauthor of Power of Patterns Inviting Young Writers Conventions of Language. Check out Whitney's webpage. <https://www.whitneylarocca.com> . A link to the Zoom session will be forwarded to you upon a receipt of your registration.

Use this link to register for the September 22, 2021 session - <https://tinyurl.com/4rn8vabz>

Please share this professional learning opportunity with your local councils and other literacy educators.

Follow and like Palmetto State Literacy Association on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram